

life groups

Questions for the Week of January 16

- If you controlled the world, what would be your top two “Greatest Commandments”?
- What are your personal challenges in demonstrating your love for God? Which sphere of influence—your home, your neighborhood, your workplace—is it most difficult to put God first? Explain.
- Create a list of ways you personally show God love. Choose one thing from your list to focus on intentionally growing this week, and share it with your Life Group.
- What is the hardest thing about loving other people?
- Create a list of ways you personally show people love. Choose one thing from your list to focus on intentionally growing this week, and share it with your Life Group.
- As you have grown in your relationship with Jesus, how have you seen your heart and actions grow more compassionate and empathic toward others?