Questions for the Week of March 6

1. What's your favorite action/adventure movie, show, or book? Why?
2. Acts 27-28 is a crazy adventure story of a storm, a shipwreck, an unusual island, and finally the arrival in Rome. Looking back at your notes, what most caught your attention, encouraged, challenged, or confused you?
3. Describe a time when your life took a detour. What did you learn about yourself? others? God?
4. In the story of the shipwreck and Paul's journey to Rome, there's a constant back-and-forth of God's sovereignty and human responsibility. Why is it important to remember both in life's detours?
5. Read Psalm 139:1-16. How can these truths transform your everyday life? How can they keep you grounded when life takes a detour?
6. How can our own difficulties and detours be an opportunity for you to influence non-Christians (the skeptics, doubters, explorers, disinterested) in a positive way?
7. How does Paul's bold faith and spiritual influence during the shipwreck and on the island guide you as you reach, serve, and love the One Life that God has placed in your path?
