Questions for the Week of May 15

1. After reviewing your message notes and the passage, what was a new insight, a good reminder, or an encouraging word?
2. Pastor Quintin shared four questions for finding direction in your life, especially when you live and work in a culture that may have values and practices contrary to the Christian faith. Of these questions, which one is the most profound or thought-provoking to you? Why? Remember to first focus on your own life (and not someone else's).
 - Who has the final say in my life?
 - Will I choose faithfulness when it's difficult?
 - Where am I vulnerable to false ideas and temptation to compromise?
 - What's the over-arching ambition for my life?
3. Pastor Quintin stated four truths to embrace about Jesus. Of these, which one is particularly encouraging or stretching in your current life situation? Why?
 - Jesus is Lord.
 - Jesus is trustworthy.
 - Jesus is the way, the truth, the life.
 - Jesus is worth it.
4. Think about some areas of your daily life (below). Circle the one(s) where finding the right direction is the most challenging right now. What phrase from the passage can help you? Share with your group why it's helpful.

• family	• education	• fitness
• relationships	• social media	• schedule
• rest	• neighbors	• personal mindset
• community	• recreation	• mental health
• finances	• work	• spiritual growth
