DUMB THINGS SMART PEOPLE BELIEVE

3 DUMB THINGS SMART PEOPLE BELIEVE ABOUT SIN

What you _____ influences how you _____

1. All _____ is the _____

Romans 3:23, Romans 6:23,
Luke 20:47, 1 Corinthians 6:18

2. I am not a _____

Romans 3:10, 1 John 1:8, Romans 3:23

If you don't see yourself as a _____, you will never see your need for a _____.

3. Since I've already _____

_____, I might as well keep _____.

Romans 6:1-2, 2 Corinthians 5:17

God, I am smart enough to know that I do not have everything figured out, and you still love me. God, what am I misunderstanding or ignoring about the things in my life that do not honor you? Help me know what is true so I can know what to do. And help me to do...

SHARE

1. When have you locked yourself out of your car or house? What happened?
2. What's one thing you believed as a child you now know isn't true?

STUDY

3. Reflect on Pastor Brandon's main sermon points.
4. Which of the three sin myths have you previously believed? Explain.
5. Pastor Brandon said he sometimes feels like he's living in a tornado of tolerance. When have you been in a similar situation and what was it like?
6. How have you, or someone you know, successfully resisted sin when tempted? See 1 Corinthians 10:13 & 2 Corinthians 5:17.
7. Why does sin have the greatest power when it's kept a secret?
8. How can we avoid falling for myths about sin and embrace areas where God wants us to grow? See 1 John 1:8.
9. Why should we stay away from the idea "most people are good" when building bridges with outsiders? How might this idea minimize the need of being rescued from sin?

12. Why does having reverence for God (v. 7) make it easier to resist sin and stay on the right path?
13. How do you best distinguish between earthly and godly wisdom?
14. When have you witnessed God work something out because you trusted in Him and not your own intuition?
